

2017-2018 North Dakota Collegiate DECA Officers

Heather Heyerman, State President

Heather Heyerman serves as your state president. Heather is from St. Michael MN. She attends school at North Dakota State College of Science in Wahpeton where she majors in Business Marketing. This is her last year at NDSCS then she will head to NDSU for a Marketing degree. Heather is a part of many leadership programs including programs like DECA, Student Senate, Campus Activities Board, NDSCS Ambassadors and many more. She loves to be involved and give back to her school. Heather works as a dance instructor for Edge Dance and Performing Arts in Breckenridge MN and also works as a tour guide at NDSCS. In her free time she likes to hang out with friends and family, volunteering and going shopping. Heather is very excited to serve as the state president for North Collegiate DECA this year. Madelyne Gallardo, State Vice President

Madeleyne Gallardo, also known as Maddie, is an international student from Honduras. She is double majoring at Mayville State University in Business Administration and Psychology and a specialization in Marketing. Currently, she has two jobs on campus but her dream is to go back home and have her own business. Maddie joined DECA her freshman year and since then she absolutely loved it and became very involved. She has been in DECA for two years and a half serving as PR for her chapter last year, and has been a Vice President for the North Dakota Association for two years in a row. Also, she won first place for State last conference in the Entrepreneurship Growing your Business event with her brother, Orson, and placed as a finalist for ICDC California 2017. Her parents, two sisters and her niece are living in Honduras. She is a bilingual speaker (English, Spanish) and is so very excited to serve as the Vice President for the second time!

Jordan Johnson, State Vice President

Jordan Johnson is a senior at Mayville State University majoring in Business Administration and minoring in Accounting with Banking and Management specializations. This is Jordan's third year in DECA and she is currently serving as the Mayville State DECA Chapter president for the second year in a row. Outside of DECA Jordan likes to stay busy with other clubs on campus by volunteering her time as a Peer Leader and holding many other different leadership roles. Joining Collegiate DECA has greatly enhanced her college experience, and she is excited to meet with other members from across the state this year and help promote Collegiate DECA! Contact Jordan at Jordan.Johnson@mayvillestate.edu

Mikayla Gustafson, State Vice President

Mikayla Gustafson serves as your state Vice President. She attends Valley City State University where she is a member of DECA and the Philomathian Sorority. When she is not busy working her three jobs or doing homework she enjoys being out on the golf course, watching/filming the VCSU football team, or on the couch with a good book. She is looking forward to the year ahead and she can't wait to make this year legendary.
